

Name _____

The Apple with the Growling Dog

Story – When the apple is in front of the dog, the dog opens its mouth widely and eats the apple in one big bite, “Ar!” He also sees his reflection in the apple and yells out his name (R! so everyone knows it’s his apple.

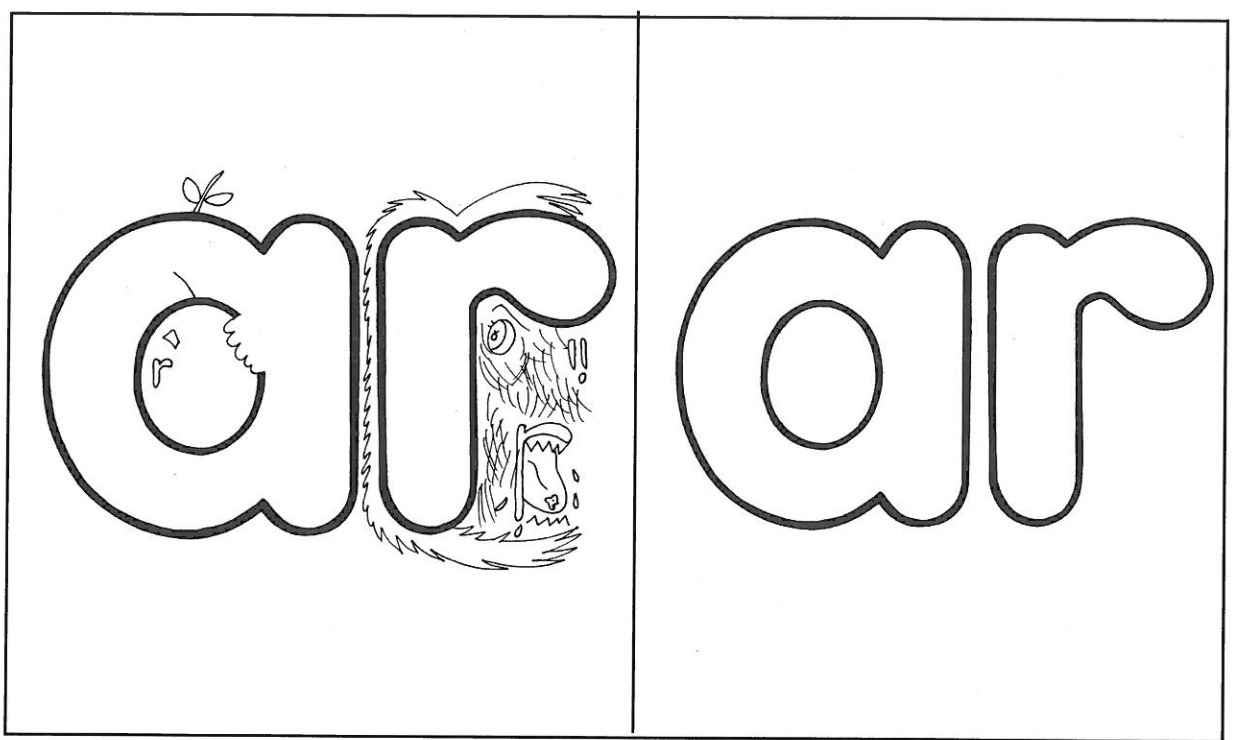

Hand cue: Pretend to be holding an apple in front of your mouth, open your mouth widely and take one huge bite.

Name _____

ar

Name _____

_____

-----

_____

-----

--	--

Draw 2 things that have this sound in it.

Name _____

Ed and the Growling Dog

Story – When Ed gets in front of the dog, the dog gets annoyed and growls, “Er!” Ed is so scared he doesn’t make his regular sound.

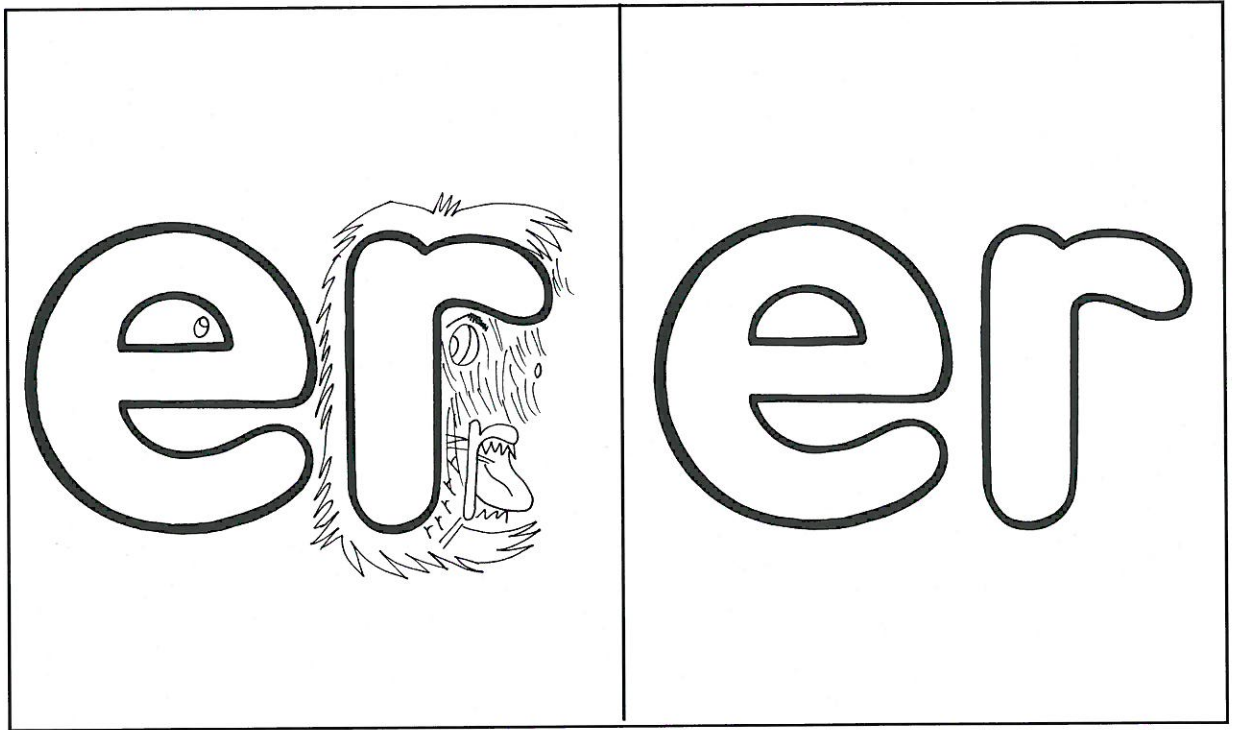

Hand cue: Turn your head to your left side and make a nasty, mean face, turning the corner of your mouth up to growl.

Name _____

Name _____

_____

-----

_____

-----

_____

--	--

Draw 2 things that have this sound in it.

Name _____

The Basketball Player and the Growling Dog

Story – When the basketball player gets in front of the dog, the dog gets annoyed and growls, “Ir!” The basketball player is so scared that he doesn’t make his sound.

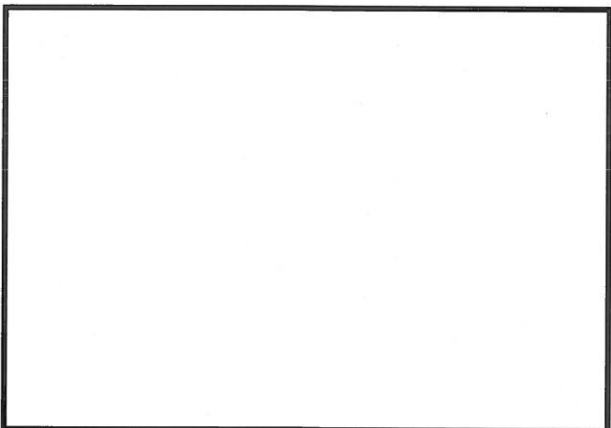

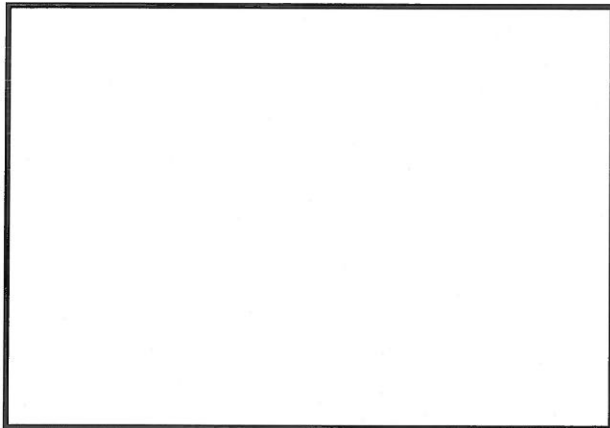

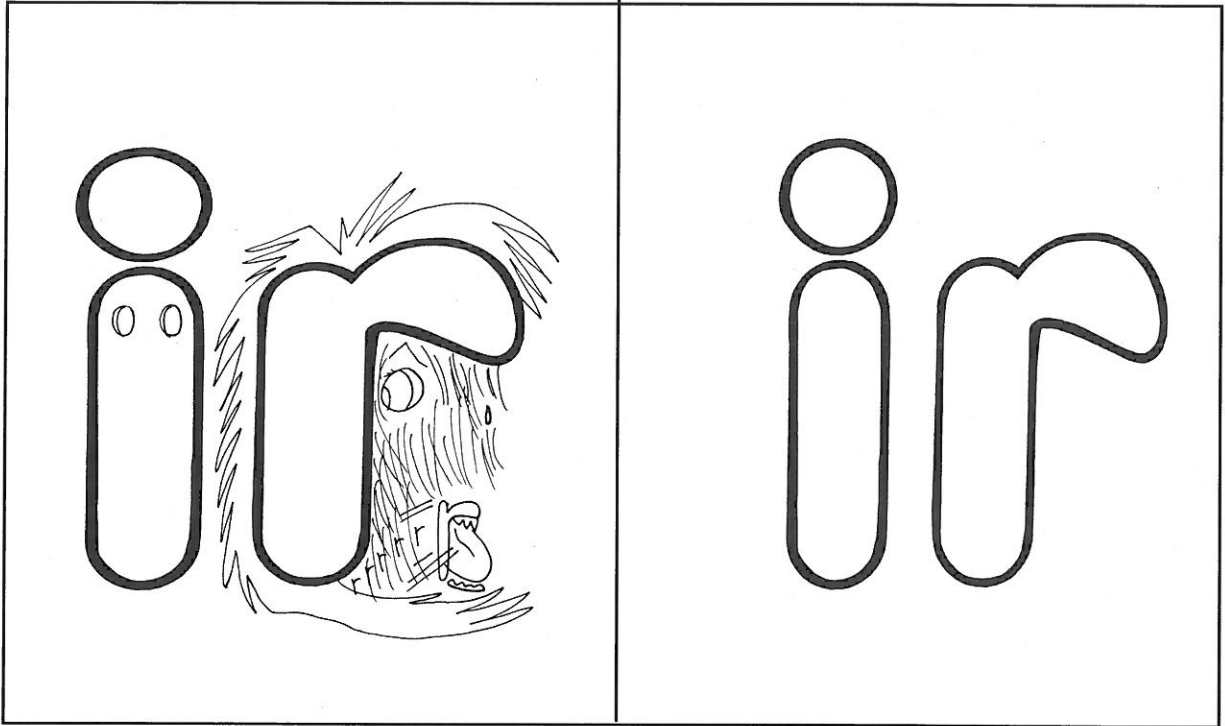

Hand cue: (same as for ER)

Name _____

Name _____

Draw 2 things that have this sound in it.

Name _____

The Baby with the Growling Dog

Story – When the baby gets in front of the dog, the dog says, "This baby's so cute. I probably won't growl at her, OR....(great inflection on the 'OR') maybe I will!"

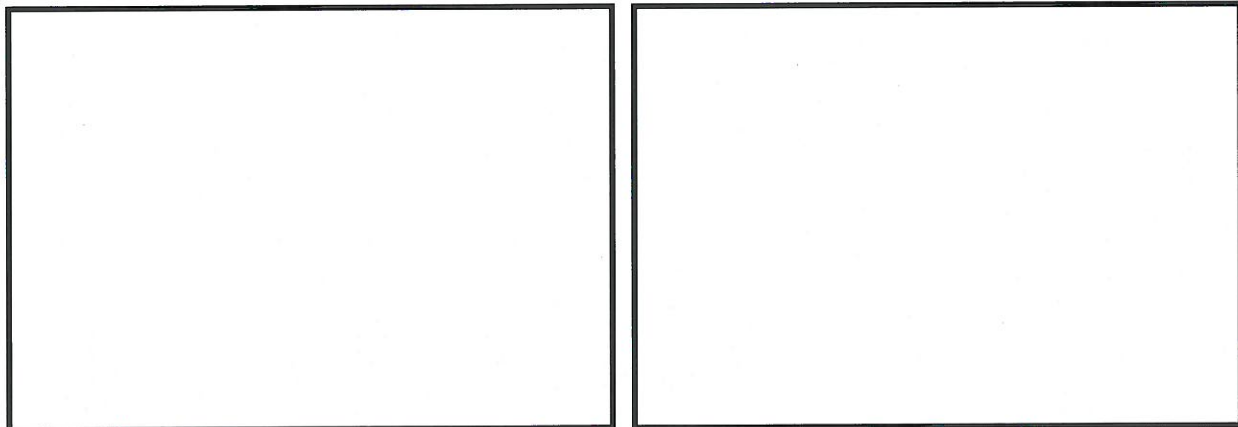

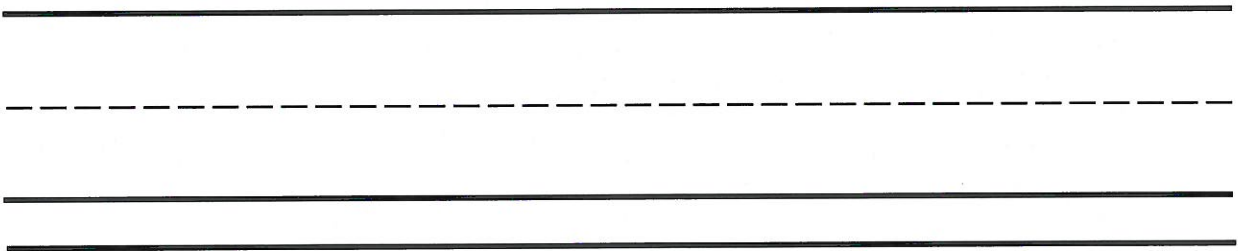

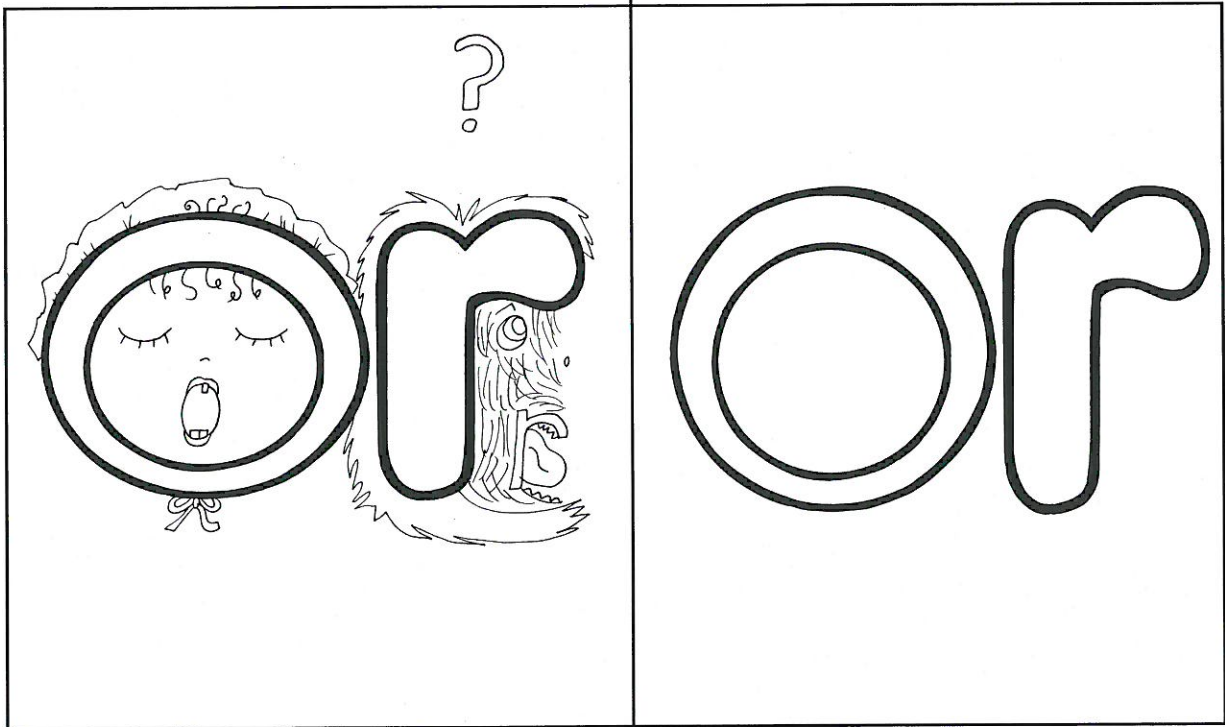

Hand cue: Tilt your head to the side, look up, and put your index finger up to your head, as if asking a question, with a sneaky look on your face.

Name _____

Name _____

Draw 2 things that have this sound in it.

Name _____

The Toddler and the Growling Dog

Story – When the toddler gets in front of the dog, the dog gets annoyed and growls, “Ur!” The toddler is so scared that he doesn’t make his sound.

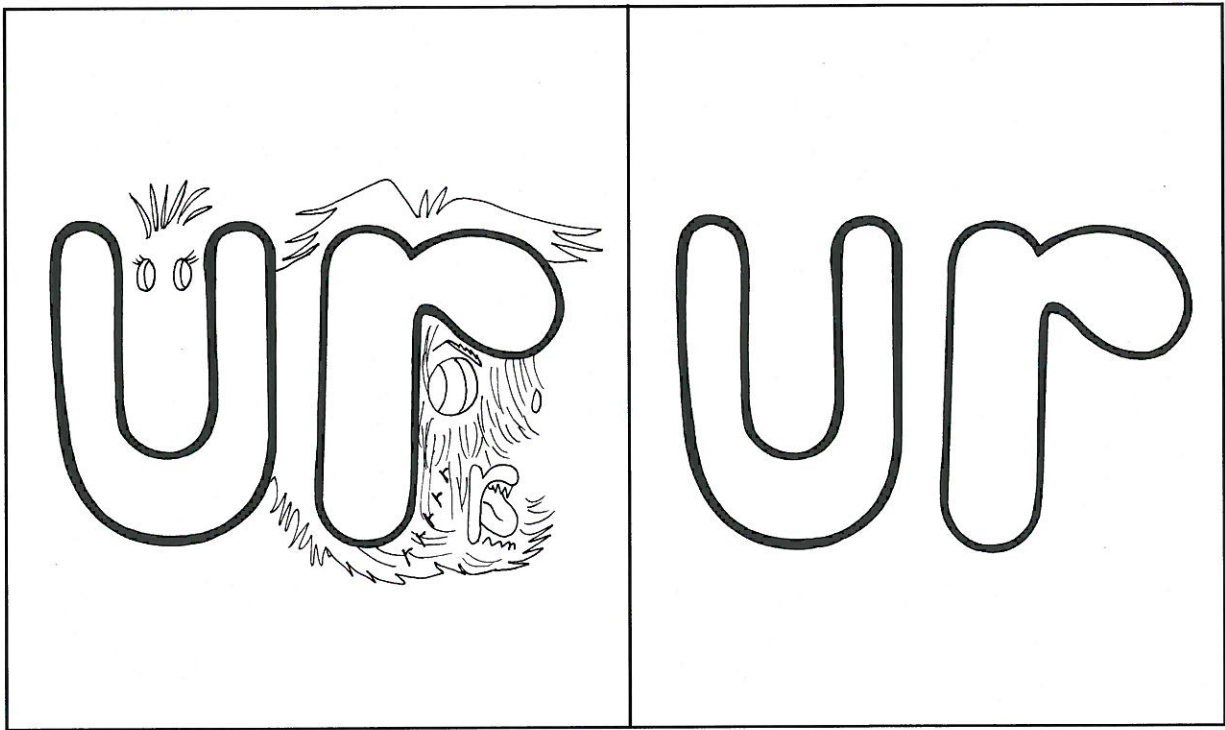

Hand cue: (same as ER)

Name _____

Name _____

_____

-----

_____

-----

--	--

Draw 2 things that have this sound in it.

